Artificial Intelligence: Legal and Governance Perspectives

20 October 2021

Presenter:

Mr William Wong

Mr William Wong is a Consultant of Clifford Chance. He specialises in contentious regulatory work and financial services litigation, advising on market misconduct issues, compliance with financial rules and regulations, white-collar crimes (AML/CTF, anti-bribery and corruption) and mis-selling disputes. With his in-house experience, he represents a broad range of institutional clients (banks, securities firms, hedge funds, asset managers and other financial institutions) and individual clients (senior executives of listed corporations and financial institutions) in investigations by regulatory authorities and law enforcement agencies. He also frequently advises on tech and crypto-related issues.

William also advises regularly in commercial and employment disputes involving High Court and Labour Tribunal proceedings, as well as anti-trust investigations by the Hong Kong Competition Commission.
