

The Hong Kong Chartered Governance Institute
Enhanced Continuing Professional Development (ECPD) Training
New Corporate Governance Code: Culture – An Organisation’s
Foundation and Fingerprint

15 June 2022

Speaker:

Ms Amily Lam

Ms Amily Lam is an Associate Director in Deloitte Risk Advisory practice. She has over 10 years of professional experiences, specializing in corporate governance, risk management, and internal audit advisory services. She is a Certified Public Accountant, Certified Internal Auditor, and earned a Master Degree in Law (Compliance & Regulation) from the University of Hong Kong.

Amily has extensive professional work experience with companies listed in Hong Kong Stock Exchange. Over the years, she has performed a number of gap analysis for her clients against versions of Corporate Governance Code. She is also advising her clients regarding the latest updates with regard to the Code. Amily was previously involved in developing a risk culture program for a corporate. She understands and echo the importance and potential for developing, measuring and sustaining corporate culture.