Cross-Border Insolvency in Hong Kong – Recent Legal Developments

20 October 2022

Speaker:

Ms Wynne Mok

Ms Wynne Mok is a Partner in Slaughter and May's Asia-wide Disputes and Investigations Group, focusing on regulatory investigations and inquiries, commercial litigation, and securities investigations. She also regularly advises on a wide range of restructuring and insolvency matters. Wynne is an appointed Solicitor Advocate in Hong Kong and has been granted Higher Rights of Audience before the High Court and the Court of Final Appeal in civil proceedings in Hong Kong.

Prior to joining Slaughter and May, Wynne was a Director of Enforcement of the Securities and Futures Commission (SFC) where her principal responsibilities included managing litigation involving the Enforcement Division, giving advice on operational issues encountered by the SFC's Enforcement Division, and participating in the management of the division.

Prior to the SFC, Wynne was a dispute resolution partner at a global law firm where she handled cases in a broad range of areas with a particular focus on commercial litigation, securities investigations, business ethics and anti-corruption, contentious trust and probate, and employment disputes. Her practice had a focus on PRC corporations and individuals.
