

The Hong Kong Chartered Governance Institute

Enhanced Continuing Professional Development (ECPD) Training

Practical Overview of HKEX's Latest Guidance on Disclosure Requirements

14 June 2023

Speaker:

Ms Stephanie Chan

Ms Stephanie Chan is a Partner of Sidley Austin. Stephanie specialises in commercial litigation, contentious regulatory matters and international arbitration. Stephanie has extensive experience in advising multinational and Chinese companies in a broad range of commercial disputes across multiple jurisdictions, with a particular focus on cross-border contractual disputes, joint venture and shareholder disputes, fraud, enforcement of securities and debt recovery. She also has assisted numerous clients from across different industry sectors including financial services, mining, real estate, entertainment, energy, medical as well as manufacturing. Stephanie also has particular expertise in advising multinational companies, PRC state-owned enterprises, international investment banks, Chinese banks, private equity funds and asset managers in regulatory investigations conducted by regulatory and enforcement authorities including the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, Securities and Futures Commission, Hong Kong Monetary Authority and Commercial Crime Bureau.

Stephanie has been recognized several times as a Next Generation Lawyer and Partner in Regulatory by Legal 500 Asia-Pacific. Stephanie is most recently ranked as an Up and Coming lawyer in Dispute Resolution: Litigation by Chambers Greater China Region 2023, and is also recognized by Legal 500 Asia-Pacific 2023 in Litigation, Arbitration and Restructuring and Insolvency. In Legal 500 Asia Pacific 2023, she is described by clients as “a robust and diligent litigator with substantial experience and expertise in handling commercial disputes and contentious regulatory matters”. Clients also recognize her “great commercial sense”, “strong language ability” and “excellent client management”, and appreciate her “solid legal knowledge” and “strategic advice” in settling “big-money and highly complex dispute,” and that “she often goes above and beyond to ensure a positive outcome is achieved,” as quoted in Chambers Greater China Region 2023.