

The Hong Kong Chartered Governance Institute
Enhanced Continuing Professional Development (ECPD) Training
Signs of a Shifting Whistleblowing Landscape in the Workplace

7 March 2024

Speaker:

Mr Jun Kwong

Mr Jun Kwong is a Partner of MinterEllison LLP's financial services regulatory practice group. He has more than 10 years of experience in advising institutional and individual clients in investigations and/or proceedings commenced by regulatory authorities and law enforcement agencies in Hong Kong, including the Securities and Futures Commission, the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited, and the Financial Intelligence and Investigation Bureau of the Hong Kong Police Force.

Jun has handled various corporate investigations by listed companies in respect of corporate misconduct, accounting irregularities and corporate governance, and has advised clients in related regulatory investigations. Jun's main areas of practice are financial services regulatory, contentious probate and estate administration, contentious competition law and commercial litigation. He was one of the finalists in the Young Lawyer of the Year (Law Firm) Category of the Asian Legal Business Hong Kong Law Awards 2023.