

The Hong Kong Chartered Governance Institute Enhanced Continuing Professional Development (ECPD) Training

Rating – An Overview and Practical Sharing

8 May 2024

Speaker:

Dr Sylvia Xiao

Dr Sylvia Xiao is a Senior Lecturer in the Lee Shau Kee School of Business and Administration at Hong Kong Metropolitan University. She obtained her Doctor of Philosophy degree from City University of Hong Kong, Master of Laws degree from The Chinese University of Hong Kong, as well as double degrees in Bachelor of Economics and Bachelor of Laws from South China Normal University. She possesses the National Unified Legal Professional Qualification Certificate of the People's Republic of China.

She teaches courses on business law, company law and sustainable business practices, and her research interests are mainly focused on the fields of empirical legal studies, law and economics, corporate governance, and artificial intelligence and law. She has actively participated in both domestic and international academic conferences, presenting her work. Furthermore, her research articles have been published in scholarly journals that are relevant to these subject areas.