Competition Law Guidance Note (Twelfth Issue) – Guidance Note on Resale Price Maintenance (RPM)

The governance professional may know that in the past year, the Hong Kong Competition Commission (Commission) has stepped up its fight against suppliers setting fixed or minimum resale prices for distributors - also known as resale price maintenance (RPM). In September 2022, the Commission lodged enforcement proceedings against a supplier of monosodium glutamate (MSG) that had allegedly been imposing minimum resale prices on two distributors. This focus on 'vertical' relationships along the supply chain was a break from the Commission's previous enforcement focus on cartels, i.e. competitors harming competition at the same level of the supply chain.

The Commission 'doubled down' its efforts with a city-wide campaign advocating against RPM in June 2023, which included a new educational brochure on the topic (RPM Brochure). This guidance note discusses the key takeaways from the RPM Brochure and highlights what businesses in Hong Kong as well as governance professionals, as their trusted advisers, need to know about RPM in Hong Kong.

Gratitude is expressed to Natalie Yeung, Partner, Slaughter and Moy as the author of this guidance note with input from Alexander Lee, Counsel and Adam Jayaramanani, Registered Foreign Lawyer. The Institute's Competition Law Interest Group members are David Simmons FCG HKFCG (Chairman), Adelaide Luhn, Alastair Morrison, Brian Kennedy KC, Mr. Thomas and Natalie Yeung, Mrs April Chan FCG HKFCG, Institute Past President, is Chairman of the Institute's Technical Consultation Panel with oversight of the Institute's Interest Groups, Mahan Dattwani FCG HKFCGPEI, Institute Deputy Chief Executive, also serves as Secretary to the Institute's Interest Groups. If you have any comments and/or suggestions relating to the Institute's thought leadership, please contact: mohan.dattwani@hkgi.org.hk.
